

Chris Eades

Managing Director, Co-Director of Research,
Senior Research Analyst for Energy

Chris is co-director of research, senior research analyst for energy and a director of ClearBridge. He has 18 years of investment industry experience.

As co-director of research, Chris oversees the cornerstone of the ClearBridge approach to investing: proprietary research. Chris also serves as a co-portfolio manager for an energy-focused closed-end fund. Chris joined ClearBridge in 2006 as a senior research analyst for energy and was named co-director of research in 2009.

Previously, Chris served as an energy analyst and portfolio manager at Saranac Capital from 2002 to 2006. Prior to that, Chris served as an analyst covering energy exploration and production companies for Simmons & Company from 2001 to 2002, and was an energy analyst at both UBS Warburg from 1995 to 2001 and at NatWest Securities from 1992 to 1995. He holds a BA in Economics from Vanderbilt University.

“Putting a stock’s downside risk and upside potential in the proper context, our research team is integral to each Portfolio Manager’s investment process.”
